

CORALINE

Written by Neil Gaiman Illustrated by Catherine Booth

An illustration of a man in a dark blue suit and hat, and a child in a yellow raincoat and blue skirt, dancing joyfully in the rain. They are holding a large red umbrella. The man is leaning against a green lamppost. The background shows a rainy street scene with other people holding umbrellas, a camera on a tripod, and a white bird flying in the sky. The overall mood is whimsical and romantic.
